

CD Release Party:
Say It, Evan Goodrow Band

After almost a year in the making Boston's own "Evan Goodrow Band" will release the new recording "Say It" a collection of 13 songs capturing the new sound and trio setting of the band (Including John Cooke on Hammond B3 and Phil Antoniadès on drums).

This will be the band's first appearance at the Regent. Tickets are $12 and include the CD "Say it."

As a result of grassroots hard work, Evan has built a large body of music (this is his 10th recording as a band leader), won various awards and played with most of his musical heroes, including B.B. King, Jimmy Buffet, Buddy Guy, Peter Frampton, G.E. Smith (from the Saturday Night Live Band), along with Susan Tedeschi, J. Geils, Sam Kininger (Soulive), and local Boston favorites Entrain, David Maxwell, and Gordon Beadle while remaining completely independent of what might be referred to as the "traditional music business" road shows and record labels.

"He's a cross between Stevie Wonder and Dave Matthews"

~Village Voice

"Exceptional!"

~B.B. King

"Pretty fly for a white guy!"

~Philadelphia City Paper

"Sings and grooves with the likes of Curtis Mayfield"

~The Noise Magazine (Boston, MA)

"This is a band to watch"

~Carter Allen 100.7 WZLX (Boston's Classic Rock)

"Evan's music makes me want to get back behind the mic again and do a big DJ shoutout to Boston and to the world.: YOU KEEP ROCKIN' THE HOUSE, EVAN!"

~Charles Laquidara (Historic Boston's Big Mattress radio show)